

LOO NIVA e-NEWS

Quarterly Newsletter

Volume : 08

Issue : 01

Jan-Mar 2018

Annual Review and Planning Workshop

Lalitpur, Loo Niva successfully conducted annual review and planning workshop at Hotel Country Villa Nagarkot, Kavre on 4 to 7 January, 2018. All the staff members along with board members, all together 39 members participated in the program. The main objectives of the program were to have sharing and discussion on the experiences of 2017, traced out the plans for the year 2018. and also provided the capacity build up on changing development scenario and result.

Program Officer Ms. Sabina Bhandari presenting the annual report of ESP at Hotel Contry Villa , Nagarkot

The workshop was facilitated by Mr. Narendra Dangol, Executive Director of Loo Niva. During the workshop Dr. Bholu Dahal assistance professor of Kathmandu University share information about NGOs, Local Government act and project measurement process. Mr. Milan Dharel - external evaluator share the final evaluation report of CFE-II and Loo Niva advisor - Mr. Rajendra Tuladhar share information about the quality result deliver.

The workshop could provide the full energy and capacitated on the present development model and the process to all the participants. It also helped all to get flash back in the previous experiences.

Project Orientation 2018

South Lalitpur, Loo Niva Child Concern Group organized a project orientation of “Accountable and Inclusive School Project” (AISP) on different dates, on 16 Feb at Ashrang, 17 Feb at Gimdi and 18 Feb at Thuladurlung. The main purpose of the event was to orient on the annual plan of AISP project 2018 to all the local stakeholders and collect their feedback.

Senior program officer Mr. Chiree Kaji Dangol sharing the 2018 project activiites plan of AISP to the stakeholders of Bagmati Rural Municipality-07, Lalitpur

The orientation was commemorated with chairmanship of all ward chairpersons of the respective wards. The program was facilitated by Mr. Chiree Kaji Dangol - senior program officer of Loo Niva. Representatives teachers, SMC/PTA members from all target schools, child network members, CBOs, political leaders took participate in the program and gave their vote of agreed in the designed 2018 plan of Loo Niva. They expressed that it will help to track the development programs in the community, reduce duplications and also help to monitor the programs.

Home visit of sponsored child

Lalitpur, Loo Niva organize regular home visit to the sponsored children's home as it is most essential and important for designing programs, supporting and reporting. Loo Niva officers conducted the home visit in seven homes of the sponsored children in the months of January to March 2018. Officers did consultation on the education status and present condition of all the Secondary Education Examination (SEE) level students.

Sponsorchild with their parents during the Home Visit at Khokana, Lalitpur

During the home visit, officers realized the continuous motivation from the parents towards their children is much important. But it is happening due to less experiences, skill or knowledge. Some awareness campaign should be conduct for achieving the quality result in coming days.

Sharing learning program on ECD

Lalitpur, Loo Niva interns organized a half day sharing learning workshop entitled "Effective Facilitation in ECD Class" on March 9, 2018 at Bal Kumari Basic School, Sainbu, Lalitpur. The main goal of the workshop was to share the ideas of designing the required materials and methods in math subject. The program was commemorated with welcome speech by Ms. Sabina Bhandari, Program officer of Loo Niva and the program was facilitated by Ms. Ruku Mali, Loo Niva intern.

Loo Niva interns Ms. Ruku Mali and Ms. Tenzin Koyzom interacting and sharing exercise materials technique with the students of Bal Kumari Basic School, Lalitpur

The whole sessions covered with excited exercises and interaction in mathematics subject. Facilitator used different education materials and games as a tool where students can easily understand the mathematics shapes. The session was conducted effectively that all the students enjoyed and learned the teaching methods in mathematics shapes and numbers.

Mr. Dayawanti Koirala, Math teacher of ECD expressed that the program was interesting and got new ideas in designing and facilitating the math classes. He promised that he will use the same method in his class. Ms. Ruku Mali, facilitator of the workshop also expressed her grateful to Loo Niva for providing the platform for sharing the ideas and learning from practical field.

Community Awareness Campaign

Lalitpur, the series of awareness classes on urinary tract infection (UTI) and stress management skills for the mother's group have accomplished by the Loo Niva interns during the months of February and March 2018. The main aim of the program to provide basic skills to prevent on the UTI infection and gave basic skills on stress management.

Loo Niva interns conduct the interaction with the women's groups of Khokana and Bungamati. Participants shared their own experiences during the program and find out the best solutions on the particular solutions. Similarly, they conduct the awareness at AIMS college as well. All the participants actively discussed on the teen agers problem, stress management. College students expressed that the program helped to reduce stress level of teen agers.

Awareness program on urinary tract infection (UTI) and Stress Management Skill to Women group of Bungamati and Khokana by Loo Niva Interns

All the facilitators of the program, Loo Niva interns were the practitioners of the psychosocial counseling from ANTARANG PSYCHOSOCIAL RESEARCH & TRAINING INSTITUTE - NEPAL.

Capacity building event to Loo Niva interns

Lalitpur, January 30 - Loo Niva organized a capacity building program on power point presentation skill to all the Loo Niva interns on January 30, 2018. The main aim of the event was to enhance the capacity on presentation and built self-confident level of all interns.

Loo Niva Interns participating on presentation Competition program at Loo Niva Hall competition on power point presentation between Loo Niva Interns. Competitors were given the topic before the competition.

The event was conducted as competition program between Loo Niva volunteers. Six interns took participate in the event. They were provided the topic before the competition. Ms. Roshani Mali, interns from AIMS college secured first position in the competition. The competition was judged by Mr. Nabin Dangol - Monitoring and Evaluation coordinator and Mr. Chiree Kaji Dangol- Senior program officer. Mr. Narendra Dangol handover the first prize to Roshani Mali and wished for her bright future. He said the program had other hidden objective as well, that was intern mobilization in the community level program. He elaborated Loo Niva is planning to mobilize the capable volunteers in community level program. He said it could observe the level and capacity of volunteers and again said that Loo Niva will provide a platform to Mr. Roshani Mali to engage and facilitate the community program in coming days.

Awareness program on State's facilities and services in Education

South Lalitpur, Loo Niva and Patan CBR jointly organized one day awareness class on state facilities and services in Education in coordination with ward office of Gimdi and Ashrang on 23 and 24 March respectively. The program was targeted to all the SMC and PTA chair of all schools, youth volunteers and all ward elected members of Gimdi and Ashrang wards. The main objective of the event was to share and discuss on the state facilities on education, to discuss on the education plans and conditions of local level. The event has aimed to cascading the learning to the needy parents and students in their wards.

Students are doing a group work on State facilities and Services in Education Program at Gimdee - Lalitpur

Both ward chairs of Gimdi Mr. Navaraj Sanjel - and Mr. Lal Bahadur Lopchan - ward chair of Ashrang facilitated awareness classes. They focused their sessions on the state facilities on education and education plan which they have developed. All the participants actively participated in the session. Mr. Gyan Bhakta Maharjan, Program Coordinator of Loo Niva took session on positive behavior and peer education. He also orients on the cascading model and described on the peer education process. Mr. Ram Kumar - field coordinator took the session on disabilities and state facilities.

All the participant agreed to share the learning to other needed family and community people. They prepared the plan for cascading program at the end time of the program. Respective ward chair persons also happy to get the plan from all participants and asked to collect the important information from all programs which can also help in ward level work.

Awareness on cyber harassment and safety measures

Lalitpur, one day awareness class on cyber harassment and safety measures for youth was organized by Loo Niva in support with Nijal Hostmaelingen and August from Norway. The awareness event focused on human rights, cyber harassment, its laws and safety measures in Nepal. The event also shared the experiences of Norway.

Mr. Njal Hostmaelingen - facilitator of the program is a human rights expert from Norway, had experienced on participating and also arranging seminars/workshops in Nepal on child rights issues. Mr. August is a student of Norway. Mr. August shared his experiences of typical Norwegian high-school on hinder cyber harassment and compare with the situation in Nepal. 19 Nepali youths took participate in the program and they shared the condition of cyber harassment in Nepal.

Mr.NjalHostmaelingen, facilitating about the cyberHarassment and safety measures to the youth group at Loo Niva Hall

All the participants were encouraged by the presence of Dr. Banadelte Kumar, representative from Norwegian Embassy and from her inspirable speech. All the participants agreed to share their learning to their other friends and apply in their life.