

20th Annual General meeting of Loo Niva

Program Manager Sant Ram Dangol presenting the progress report and planning of Loo Niva, Kathmadu Coffee Shop, Bhaisepati , Lalitpur

Lalitpur, Loo Niva successfully conducted 20th Annual General Meeting on September, 2017 at Kathmandu coffee shop, Bhaisepati. There was presence of Loo Niva's board members, general members and president Ms. Sushila Thapa Adhikari, advisors and all Loo Niva staffs. Loo Niva's Chief Secretary and Executive Director Mr. Narendra Dangol inaugurated and addressed the program by welcoming all the participation.

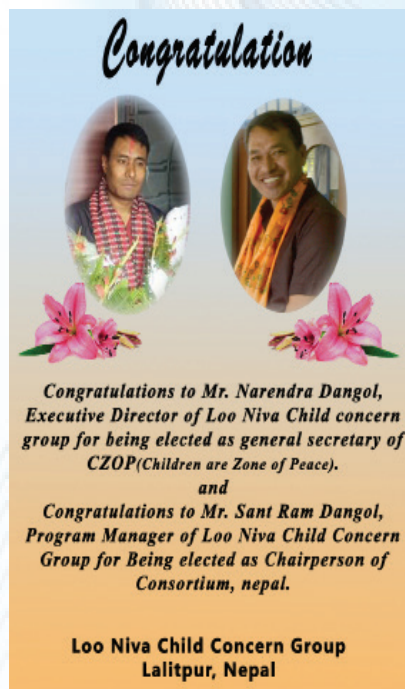

Program Manager Mr. Sant Ram Dangol presented the progress report of fiscal year 073/074 and planning of fiscal year of 074/075 of Loo Niva.

Loo Niva board's treasurer Mr. Bekha Ratna Dangol presented the fiscal budget report of 073/074. The suggestion from board members and staffs were collected from the discussion. The revision and update of organization constitution was also proposed and board member Mr. Buddhi Ratna Dangol suggested to modify organizational profile's website in effective and attractive way.

CONTENTS

- 1 20th Annual General meeting of Loo Niva
- 2 Workshop on Local level education Policy program
- 2 Child club activities
- 3 3 days teaching learning training
- 3 National Children Day Celebration
- 4 Parents awareness program
- 4 Radio program
- 5 Support for developing and publicly presentation of the school code of conduct
- 5 Active and engaged civil society at policy level
- 6 Monitoring Visit
- 6 International Book day
- 7 Capacity development program for ESP Youth Forum students
- 7 Loo Niva posters distributed
- 8 Participation on 1 months international training on "community Driven Development
- 8 Third quarterly meeting
- 9 Shree Bakhhal Kumari Basic school beneficial through school support program

A one-day Workshop on Local level education Policy program

Group Photo of Participants in Local Level Education Program, Dadeldhura

Dadeldhura, 6th October 2017, District Education Office, Dadeldhura and Loo Niva Child Concern Group jointly organized a one day workshop on local level education policy at Hotel Syaubari View Tower. Program was opened by Chief guest of District Coordination Committee's Chief, Dadeldhura. Program Coordinator Mr. Krishna Govinda Maharjan highlighted the objectives of the workshop.

The Educationist Prof Dr. Bidhya Nath koirala facilitated the program on the role and planning of the local stakeholder on quality education in the new federal structure with states. The Chief of Rural Municipality Ajaymeru and Ganyapur Rural Municipality, School Management Committee, Parents Teacher's Association's chief, altogether 63 people were present. The program was ended with the closing speech by Mr. Lal Jang Chauhan, Regional Education Directorate of Dipayal.

Child club activities

Dadeldhura, to promote the student's extra- talents and to enhance their capacity with the support of Loo Niva , 42 child club's members in 4 different Village development committee (VDC) conducted different activity during from July to September of 2017.

The activities like hygiene program, different competition like running, song, poem, quiz contest, essay writing, speech, culture program, drawing and other extra activity were done They linked recreational activities and games with social issue and bringing awareness in the community . 1455 students benefitted directly while doing different activities in child club.

The child club members share that such activities helps to enhance their talent, develop leadership, work effectively mobilizing the group and with positive behaviors.

3 days teaching learning training

Dadeldhura, On the coordination of District Education Office, Dadeldhura and Loo Niva child concern group conducted 3 days teaching learning training on September 7th to 9th, 2017 in Hotel Syaubari View Tower.

There were 2 participants from each 4 model schools, 20 participants from schools and one each participant from Primary schools, altogether 38 were participated on the training. To deliver the effectively on class by teachers and use child friendly environment at school was the main objective of the training. Teaching training center, Dipayal Mr. Moti Lal Sharma and District Education Office, Dadeldhura's school Supervisor Mr. Narendra Khati facilitated three days training.

Participants giving introduction during the session, Dadeldhura

Finally, Acting District Education Officer Mr. Narad Parsad Joshi District Education Officer handover the 3 days training certificate to the participant and completion the training.

National Children Day Celebration

Local bodies gather on the eve of National Children Day, Dadeldhura

Dadeldhura, on September 14, 2017 National Children day was celebrated with the coordination of Women and Child Development office Dadeldhura, District Education office and Loo Niva child concern group The Rural Municipality Ajamaru ward

1 and 2 Ganayapur ward 2 and 3 organized a different event jointly.

To enhance capacity and talent of the children by involving in extra curricular activity was the main objective of the program. They conducted different competition like quiz contest, culture program, Speech competition, rally. Loo Niva distributed education materials to the education support (sponsor) students. More than 1000 children were so happy and actively participated on the program. Loo Niva and different organization celebrated children day in south Lalitpur too with Child Network with the slogan Child friendly governance, Respect of children's right. It organized poem recite, essay competition, culture program, drama. There was rally to stop child marriage, stop children abuse, stop child labor, right for child friendly education rally. with active participation of more than 500 child club members. .

Parents awareness program

Social mobiliser Manoj Dulal interacting with the parents, Gimdee , Lalitpur

Lalitpur, Trained youth volunteers held a meeting and planned and prepared action plan for the 3 events each in three villages for parental awareness. As per learning from first quarter and previous practise , it was focused specially to dalit (lower caste) and ethnic community. The youth volunteers were previously trained on positive disciplinary approach behaviour , state facilities for disability and refresher on education governance. They had conducted 9 community meetings in Gimdee, Ashrang and Thuladurlung earlier they facilitated awareness program with the support of Loo Niva's Social mobilizers.

Youth visited to target community and targeted participants were reached out to individual homes to persuade active participation in the parental awareness Youth facilitated on state facilities , positive behaviours with dalits, CwDs and excluded children and their family, importance of education to parents and 128 benefitted.

Radio program

Dadeldhura, Loo Niva Child Concern Group, field office in Dadeldhura and coordination of District Education Office continued its radio broadcasting. 12 education related programs through 2 community radios

It is aired on prime-time evening for half an hour airing weekly by two radio stations. The 2 main community radios broadcasted a program: Amargadi broadcasted 6 programs and Radio Sudur Awaj broadcasted 6 radio programs. The program was broadcasted from 6:30 - 7:00 PM on Monday at radio Amargadi and 7:30 - 8:00 PM on Thursday at Radio Sudur Awaj. It is conducted in coordination with District Education Office, Dadeldhura and supported by Loo Niva Field Office with the main objective of discussing about the importance of education with stakeholders of Mid- and Far Western. It follow-up the activities in education and providing different information in education to spread awareness.

Support for developing and display of the school code of conduct

Display of code of conduct by Bal Bhairab Primary school head teacher , Gimdee- Lalitpur

Lalitpur, On the support of Loo Niva Gimdee, Ashrang, Thuladurlung VDC 's 18 schools prepared and have displayed code of conduct in different public spaces of school area. The main objective to makes school management and other committee bodies more responsible, accountable and transparent

Active and engaged civil society at policy level

Prof.Dr. Mana Prasad Wagley Facilitating during the policy level program at Ageno Restaurant Dhobighat, Lalitpur

Lalitpur , A One day workshop on “Education Policy Provision on Local Level Education” was held on 28th August 2017 at Ageno Restaurant, Dhobighat in cooperation with Godawari Municipality, Mahalaxmi Municipality, Konjyosom Rural Municipal, Bagmati Municipal and Mahankal Municipal among all the elected members of Municipalities and Rural Municipals in Lalitpur district. Mr Narendra

Dangol (Executive Director) welcomed all the participants and Mr. Sant Ram Dangol (Program Manager) highlighted the program objectives as well as present the detail profile of Loo Niva. The workshop was facilitated by Professor Dr. Mana Prasad Wagley and 35 (30 male & 5 female) participated. It discussed and informed on Local level education management and resource generation and cooperation with civil society organizations and central government.

Mr. Gyan Bhakta Maharjan also facilitated on “Strengthening of Local Education”. The newly elected representatives were excited to have timely and important program in the education. They expressed that it will guide and support in making the further education plan of the Rural Municipality and coordinate with Loo Niva.

Field Monitoring Visit

Monitoring team is interacting with School students of Bal Manorama Basic School, Ashrang, Lalitpur

Lalitpur, Loo Niva and Patan CBR jointly working on Promoting Inclusive and Accountable (AISP) project from 2017- 2020 in 3 VDC of south Lalitpur. On the date of October 13, 2017 to know the working status of AISP project with the present of the head of development cooperation Ms. Ilona Kaliola from partner organization Interpedia, Loo Niva and Patan CBR team did a monitoring visit.

Monitoring visit was done in Bagamati Rural Municipality ward 7. During the monitoring visit monitoring team visits different schools and with the representatives of child club's members, school's management, teachers, community, local elected representative monitoring team interact and collected feedback. The stakeholders were appreciative about the need based activities of the project and raised concern to have more intervention in child marriages. After interacting with child club representative's, they too highlighted the need to aware on child marriage. Mr. Narendra Dangol (Executive Director) committed that Loo Niva will organize awareness program on child marriage to child club members. Patan CBR representative will collect the data on disability and make more effective works.

All of the community people and local elected representative also committed that to make this program successful they will fully support as per need.

International Book day celebrated

Dadeldhura, Lalitpur, The District Education Office Dadeldhura, Loo Niva child concern group and Gananodaya Secondary school jointly organized international book day on August 31, 2017. The secondary level school's competition like speech competition on important of books and other activities. The total of 500 people participated as well as different guest and speakers were invited and encouraged the students about the importance of books and library.

One Day Capacity Development Program for ESP Youth Forum Students

Lalitpur, On the occasion of ESP annual gathering program for graduate students, Loo Niva formed a youth forum for the interested ESP students all of ESP graduate students. After selection, Loo Niva started to working with the selected students, conducted the meeting to mobilize the forum effectively.

2017 . They also prepared a draft plan for future activity for forum. All of the students felt so happy and excited to be a part of this forum. Through this forum

Senior Program Officer Chiree Kaji Dangol is facilitating on Leadership to ESP Youth Forum students, Lalitpur

those who wants to learn and build up their capacity. Those who apply and be a part of forum he/she will lead a group of ESPs and share his/her learning experience to

After discussion with selected students, Loo Niva conducted one-day capacity build up program on Leadership and Events Management on 19 th August they can explore a new idea and innovation and also implement it by conducting different program. The 20 youths are involved currently.

Loo Niva posters distributed

Lalitpur, The IEC materials development and information dissemination is key medium of Loo Niva interventions. Loo Niva published a poster on importance of education and the facilities provided by state on Education and to disable students. The 500 posters were distributed widely in different schools, Government and non-government organization as well with different stakeholders.

Participation on 1 month International Training on “Community Driven Development”

Participants group photo of International training on Community Driven Development organized by Bala Vikasa, Warangal, India

Lalitpur, Bala Vikasa is organization that conduct international training for different countries annually. Loo Niva’s staffs Ms. Sabina Bhandari and Ms. Apsara Timilsina got an opportunity to participate in one month training on “Community Driven Development “. Training was started on September 4 th to 28 th , 2017 at Talaguna, Waragal, India. There were 28 participations from 7 different countries.

During the month, 8 different facilitators facilitated on Sustainable development and culture, Asses based community development (ABCD), Appreciative Inquiry, Result based management, Neuro linguistic, Participatory rural appraisal, conflict resolution and Strategy planning. On the context of Nepal these learning materials were so useful. It also builds up confidents, it also plays a supportive role in professional and personal life shared both participants. They also committed to implement their knowledge in their working field.

Third quarterly meeting

Lalitpur, Loo Niva conducted a third quarterly review meeting on September 9,2017 led by Mr. Narendra Dangol, Executive Director in presence of 11 Loo Niva staffs.

Program Manager Mr. Sant Ram Dangol reviewed the activities and Finance Coordinator Mr. Prem Nath Maharjan reviewed the budgeting parts of the months as well as he also suggested to complete remaining activities of remining months should be done according to the plan and date.

Program Manager Sant Ram Dangol review the activities during the meeting, Lalitpur

Shree Bakhel Kumari Basic in school support program

Students of Bakhel Kumari Basic School's students enjoying game supported by Loo Niva, Lalitpur

Lalitpur, Loo Niva provided games materials, two swing one for boys and girls each and cute to Bakhel kumari school through school support program.

Mr. Tula Bhadhur Lama head teacher of the school told small students below 8 years now have access to games and also involve in extra activities. The participation has increased with all age groups for recreational activities and games developing their skills and confidence.

For More Details

Loo Niva Child Concern Group

Sainbu, Lalitpur, Nepal

G.P.O 8975 EPC 2127

Kathmandu

Phone: 977-01-5592054

Fax : 977-01-5591329

Email: info@loonivachild.org.np

Web: www.loonivachild.org.np

Facebook: www.facebook.com/loonivachild

Youtube: www.youtube.com/user/loonivachild

Twitter: https://twitter.com/Loo_Niva

Advisor: Nabin Dangol, Editor: Sabina Bhandari, Designing and Layout: Yogendra Shrestha