

Project Orientation with Stakeholder

Objectives:

- Orient on the project plan of 2022 to the local stakeholders.
- To discuss the possibilities in joint interventions.
- To collect feedback and suggestion for quality implementation of the project interventions.

Reflection of the program from the participant's view:

"This is a best practice done by Loo Niva, never been experienced like this. We are aware on the programs which are going to implement in our place. We are able to discuss on the program which can conduct in jointly. This is the important process to make the program effective and need based".

Lalitpur, Loo Niva Child Concern Group has organized a project orientation meeting for local stakeholders and beneficiaries of Ajaymeru and Ganyapdhura rural municipalities of Dadeldhura district in January 2022. The meeting has shared the planned activities of SEEN project (Strengthening Education Policy and Ensuring Rights to Education in Nepal) for the year 2022.

Similarly, the orientation of the PREP (Enhancing Right to Education and Protecting of the Most Vulnerable Children) project has been conducted in Mahankal and Konjysom rural municipalities of South Lalitpur in January.

All the planned project activities have been shared in the program by the project officers. The meeting has successfully developed the plan for joint interventions in the sector of the right to education and child protection. It has also collected constructive feedback for the quality implementation of the project.
